NEW AUTO PARKING RULES ANNOUNCED

Fifteen-Minute Parking Zones Established to Permit People
to do Trading

STATEMENT BY THE MAYOR

Urges Automobile Owners to Assist
in Enforcing New Regulations
—Some Changes

On account of the increased automobile parking congestion, the streets of Rushville have been marked off with white painted lines to direct automobile drivers in parking their machines in the business district, and in certain sections of the district, fifteen minute parking zones are established.

Mayor Walter Thomas who was asked by the council to assume charge of the parking arrangements, has directed the matter of marking off the lines, and issued a statement today, calling attention to the fact that automobile drivers should assist in abiding by the regulations, which he outlined in his statement.

Attention should also be called to the fact that there is no parking allowed on the south side of Third street, between Main and Morgan, which is due to the location of the fire department. The large motor truck cannot make get away without delay if traffic is congested in this zone.

The statement made today by Mayor Thomas, is as follows:

For the public interest and commonwealth at large is the great need of in some way caring for the increasing congestion of the autos on and about the streets of our most beautiful city, and I deem it only right and proper that we lay aside our own selfish desires just to be a KI-RO.

First, we need the use of part of the street as a "No Parking," over 15 minutes, so that the rural customer can get in reach of the sidewalk, thereby permitting them to transfer their goods to and from our business houses.

The congestion on Main and Second Streets at certain times might prove dangerous, both to life and property, should there be a fire call and the fire apparatus have a run upon said streets, when at times, you know, on Saturdays there are four machines abreast at different points, which condition is not permissible.

Now, let us all get together and help the town along, for you will most assuredly benefit the community as a whole by observing the traffic laws.

Parking around the Court House will be on a forty-five degree, Continued on page three

RELIEF FROM HEAT WAVE IS PROMISED

Weather Bureau Forecasts Lower
Temperatures In Nearly Every
Section Of Country

EIGHT LIVES CHICAGO TOLL

Washington, June 10 —Relief from the heat wave of the last few days was forecast today by the weather bureau. Somewhat cooler weather now prevails in New England and along the northern portion of the country to the Pacific coast with a drop in temperature due this afternoon, tonight and Sunday in nearly all the rest of the country, forecast said.

Chicago, June 10 —Cloudy weather and a good breeze today gave Chicago relief from the torrid temperature which caused intense suffering the last two days, and took a toll of eight lives. Many were overcome by heat. Park benches were crowded last night with sleepers who were unable to obtain rest in stuffy rooms.

Low water pressure increased the fire hazard, a great drain being made on the city's water supply by many sprinkling lawns and gardens.

MRS. CARRIE BARRETT DIES

Mother of Merrill Ball Expires at Her Home in Greenfield

Mrs. Carrie M. Barrett, aged 72 years, died Friday evening at 10 o'clock at her home in Greenfield, from a complication of diseases. The deceased is well known in this city having visited her son, Merrill Ball, on a number of occasions.

Mrs. Barrett had been in ill health for several weeks and recently underwent an operation in Indianapolis. No near relatives survive with the exception of Mr. Ball in this city.

The funeral services will be conducted Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the late residence in Greenfield and burial will take place in Knightstown.

FINGER PRINTS SOLE CLUE TO THE MURDER

Blood Hounds Lose Trail of Fiend
Who Killed Miss Alice Mallett
at Jackson, Mich.

SUSPECTS ARE RELEASED

Jackson, Mich., June 10—Finger prints on the blood-marked handle of an ax used to murder Miss Alice Mallett, girls' home matron here, Thursday, were looked upon today as the sole means of establishing a clue to the identification of the fiend.

Blood hounds lost the trail they had followed into a bog north of the city. The suspect followed in the swamp disappeared about the same spot that the warden of the state prison here and the young woman were shot to death three years ago by an escaped convict.

Hundreds of men were beating through the swamp today. Several suspects taken in the city were grilled and their finger prints taken by Captain Harmon. Robert Broekie, besides whose home the badly mutilated body of Mrs. Mallett was found, was released late last night, police being satisfied he would appear as a material witness.

NATION CONFRONTED BY SERIOUS CRISIS

Labor Leaders Gathered for A. F. L.
Convention Convinced it Must
be Met Courageously

RALLY CALL TO THE WORKERS

(By United Press)

Cincinnati, Ohio, June 10.—The nation is confronting one of the most critical industrial crisis in its history, responsible leaders of organized labor warned here today as they gathered for the convention of the American Federation of Labor.

They sounded a rally cry to the country's workers, a challenge and a warning to labor foes and appealed to the whole American people, as they announced their intentions of grappling in a constructive way in their convention with the economic problems facing them.

The elements in the critical industrial situation, in the opinion of labor leaders, are having a profound and harmful effect on the country's future if it is not met squarely, courageously and intelligently now in the coal strike, the impending railroad strike, the disposition of some employers to force wage cuts on labor, refusal to lower price, the lack of sympathy and intelligence in congress and official circles.

Labor leaders here have definite ideas of the part they must play in their convention and afterwards in meeting the crisis in their own affairs.

During a week of preliminary conventions and group meetings here the principal leaders have continuously stressed labor groups meet in unity to meet the coming foe.

HEALTH BOARD IS REORGANIZED

Dr. J. M. Lee is Elected Secretary
Following The Resignation of
Dr. R. O. Kennedy

D. D. VANOSDOL NEW MEMBER

Board Issues Statement Calling Attention to Violations of
Health Ordinances

On account of the resignation of Dr. R. O. Kennedy, as secretary of the board of health and also city health officer, the new board held a meeting Friday afternoon and reorganized, picking Dr. John M. Lee as the successor for Dr. Kennedy, and with Dr. H. V. Logan as president of the board and Dr. D. D. VanOsdol as treasurer.

Dr. Lee formerly was treasurer of the board, and when Dr. Kennedy resigned, the board was compelled to reorganize and elect a new secretary and health officer from their own membership.

Several matters pertaining to the city health were discussed at the first meeting of the new board Friday afternoon, and attention of the public was called to the following:

(1) It must be understood that there is no official vault cleaner designated by the board. All that the officers are interested in, is that the vaults ordered cleaned, are cleaned. The public will select whom they please for the work, and after the contents of the vault are removed, a thorough sprinkling of lime must be used.

(2) Attention is again called to the ordinance relative to garbage collections. This ordinance requires a suitable, air-tight, fly-proof, tight-fitting lid, on a metal container. Numerous complaints are made to the board of violations of the ordinance. People desiring their garbage collected by the city must comply with the requirements, or have it disposed of at their own expense. Open cans, under any circumstance, is a violation of the ordinance.

(3) All garbage disposals must be carried to the city dump or elsewhere outside of the city limits. Reports of garbage being dumped inside of the city limits will be followed up and the guilty parties prosecuted.

(4) All complaints must be made in persons or in a signed communication to the Secretary of the Board. Continued on page five

EVIDENCE TO BE FINISHED TONIGHT

Breach Of Contract Suit Of T. J.
Marshall Against Capp And
D. M. Miller Still In Progress

DEMAND OF $2,000 IS MADE

The case of Thomas J. Marshall against Capp Miller and D. M. Miller started in the circuit court Friday morning, was still in progress today, and it was expected that the evidence would be completed by tonight.

The suit is a demand for $2,000 judgment as the result of an alleged breach of contract, growing out of a deal in growing timber, near Metamora. The action is being bitterly fought and many witnesses have been summoned to testify for the parties. The plaintiff is represented in the case by attorneys, John A. Tittsworth and Douglass Morris, and the defense by C. W. Duncan and Donald L. Smith.

In case that the evidence is completed today, and there is no time for the arguments, they will be heard early Monday, in all probability. Another jury case is scheduled for Monday, and an effort was being made today to complete the suit on trial by night.

INFIRMARY INMATE ARRESTED.

McKinley Lemnos, who is known better as McKinley Richey, and an inmate at the county infirmary, was placed in jail Friday, after he attacked Lee Gilson, another inmate at the infirmary. Chief of Police Will O'Neil was called, and placed him in jail. It is understood that an insanity hearing will be held on the prisoner and an attempt will be made to have him committed to the State Hospital at Madison.

The program and the line of march for the annual memorial services and review of the Third Regiment, Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias, was announced today, and a record crowd is expected to attend the services here Sunday afternoon.

Several changes have been made in the program as originally announced, with the principal change being the inspection and review of the regiment will conclude the program, instead of the speaking.

All of the visiting ranks, which constitute the third-regiment, will assemble at the Knights of Pythias hall, corner of Morgan and Second street, promptly at two o'clock.

A school for officers will be held at the hall at 1:30, when the various commanders will be informed concerning the line of march.

The Rushville band will lead the parade, followed by General Gray and his staff. The various divisions of the uniform rank will follow next. In this division there will be several hundred visitors from the various towns and cities in this vicinity.

As the services were also decided to be a joint memorial for the Knights of Pythias and the Pythian Sisters, these two orders will also

OTHER ARRANGEMENTS MADE

Pageant and Exhibit of Relics Expected to Rank With Parade
as Centennial Features

Souvenir Histories

A souvenir history for the Rush county centennial celebration, made up of historical articles published in the Daily Republican during the past two months, will be issued on Tuesday of next week to persons who have contributed to the fund to finance the Centennial.

The histories are a twenty-page book put up in attractive shape by the publicity committee of the Centennial. They will be prorated among the Centennial contributors in proportion to the amount they gave and will be given away as Centennial souvenirs.

Four thousand copies have been printed and it is expected that there will be enough to go around. The histories will be distributed Tuesday.

Final plans and arrangements were made Friday evening for the parade which will be held on Thursday afternoon of the Rush county Centennial celebration next week.

Other plans for the Centennial are taking final shape and the executive committee is checking up to see that every committee has done its part in completing the arrangements.

All indications point to it being the biggest event in the history of Rush county. Word from many former residents of Rush county reveal that the publicity given the Home Coming Day on Thursday has had its effect and that hundreds of people who formerly called Rush county home will be here for the observance of the one hundredth birthday of the county.

The parade and pageant on Thursday afternoon and evening respectively are expected to be the outstanding events of the celebration, but the program for Wednesday likewise offers many attractive features which will attract many people.

PROMPT ACTION NEAR IN GASOLINE PROBE

Senate Sub-Committee Tentatively
Selects Large List of Witness-
es For Inquiry

EXPERTS ARE SUMMONED

(By United Press)

Washington, June 10—Prompt action by the senate sub-committee on manufactures, investigating increasing gasoline prices was promised by Senator LaFollette, Wisconsin, chairman, today.

That the sub-committee of five will conduct exhaustive inquiry probably continuing several weeks, was evident when it became known that a large list of witnesses embracing every phase of the gasoline and the oil industry, had tentatively been selected to appear. Though it was impossible to obtain verification as the committee met it was believed officials of leading gasoline concerns of America were first on the list.

Government experts from the bureau of mines, the geological survey and the federal trade commission, also, it was said, are to be called. These bureaus already have conducted a preliminary survey into the price soaring and are ready to turn over to LaFollette's committee details of consumption and production of gasoline during the past few years.

IDENTITY OF CHARRED BODY STILL A MYSTERY

Efforts of Authorities to Trace Man Through Sales Slips at Porter, Ind., Fail

VICTIM OF ROBBER BAND

(By United Press)

Porter, Ind., June 10.—Identity of a charred body of a murdered man found at Waverly Beach in the Indiana dune region remained a mystery today.

Efforts of authorities to trace the men through sale slips and other means failed.

Alice Gray Wilson—"Diana of the Dunes"—Chicago University graduate who inhabits the region, and her husband, said they had never seen the man before.

It was believed that the victim was in the Dunes on a day's camping trip and the man having come into the hiding place of a band of robbers or moonshiners who killed him.

His body was then apparently placed on a pile of brush and kerosene was poured over the funeral pyre.

NEW AUTO PARKING RULES ANNOUNCED

which will more than care for the "No Parking" space lost to parking.

It would be well for drivers of autos to know that in the city of Rushville there is no street that has preference over another in regard to traffic, or, which permits fast driving. Drivers should at all times bear in mind that parties coming from the right has the right of way. In coming onto streets from out of alleys, drivers must know that the traffic is clear for them. Cutting corners at intersectional streets, or turning in front of autos at the approach of turning posts, are also very dangerous. Bicycle riders must not use the sidewalks—same are for pedestrians.

Above all speed is dangerous. Caution and safety first should be each one's motto.

TO CENTRALIZE DIVISIONS

To Transfer Communication Air Service School to Chanute Field

Washington, June 9.—As a result of an investigation of a special board of officers into the aviation school of the army, the war department has decided to centralize the information divisions of the air service at Chanute flying field, Rantoul, Illinois.

Orders have been issued by Secretary Weeks transferring the communication school of the air service at Post Flying field, Fort Sill, Oklahoma, to Chanute field, and arrangements likewise are being made to move the photography school, now situated at Langley Field, W. Va., to the Illinois station. It is thought that better results in aviation training will be obtained by this change.

PARADE PLANS ARE FINISHED

building in West First street will be arranged the first of next week and will be in readiness for the opening of the Centennial Wednesday morning. The display will be arranged by townships, with each township having a booth for its exhibit.

Attention was again called today by Mrs. Guy Abercrombie, chairman of the relics committee, to the request made to merchants that they decorate their windows with relics of their particular line of business. On account of the relics being shown in one building, it is expected that business houses can arrange an attractive display reflecting the improvements in their business. In 1916, when the state Centennial was observed, county relics were exhibited in store windows.

The following plans were made for the formation of the parade Thursday:

The first part will form in North Main street below Eleventh with the Rushville police, mounted, at the head of the procession, followed by the Rushville band, the Rushville fire department and the Rushville postoffice officials.

The township sections of the historical division of the parade, which come first, will form as follows: Rushville township in West Eleventh. Noble in East Eleventh. Ripley in West Tenth. Anderson in East Tenth. Orange, Union and Jackson in West Ninth. Center, Washington and Richland in East Ninth. Walker and Posey in East Eighth.

Headed by the Arlington band the fraternal sections will form in East Seventh street and will fall in behind the historical section. Company C., Indiana National Guard, of this city, will be stationed in West Seventh street, and will bring up the rear of the fraternal section.

The industrial division, headed by the Knighttown Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home band, will form in West Eighth street and will fall in behind Company C. The retail section of the industrial division will form in North Perkins street below Sixth and will march over to Main and fall in behind the industrial floats.

G. P. Hunt will act as grand marshal of the parade and will have as his assistants, W. A. Alexander in charge of the historical or township division, Frank McIlwaine in charge of the fraternal division and Harold Pearce in charge of the industrial division, with Hugh Maury as his assistant taking charge of the retail division.

All of the townships have plans for representation in the historical division of the parade. None perhaps, has made more elaborate plans, than Ripley township which will be represented by several floats. It is described as follows in the Carthage Citizen:

"A genuine old fashioned schooner which typified early travel from the Carolinas to this county, will lead the local division. A modern way of travel will follow. It is also planned to have some floats, one representing the American Paper Products Co.'s plant which is the largest industry of any kind in the county; the DeSchipper Canning Co.'s factory and others."

CHILDREN'S DAY SUNDAY.

Children's Day exercises will be held at the Orange Christian church Sunday evening. An interesting program has been prepared consisting of songs, recitations and drills in charge of Mrs. Thomas Matney, Mrs. Claude Sipe, and Mrs. W. W. Law. Miss Freda Norris will be the piano accompanist.

Insurgent Group Formed to Search For New Evidence

Washington, June 10.—A movement to re-open the Newberry case now is under way in the senate.

An insurgent group has been formed in a search for new evidence to connect more closely Truman H. Newberry with the large campaign expenditures in the Michigan senatorial primaries of 1918.

Some new evidence in the case—not presented in the Michigan court fight or in the senate investigation—already has been discovered, according to a senator back of the move.

Aged Negro Chef To Get $500,000

(By United Press)

Greenville, Tex., June 10.—A second hand Ford truck, and the mender he has had his eye on a used flivver mite warped."

These are the earthly ambitions of John Lindley, aged negro chef in the New Beckham hotel here, whose lawyers say he is about to get half a million dollars for a forty acre piece of oil land.

John declares he is "going right on cooking for Mr. Beckham" despite his unexpected affluence. But he has had his eye on aused flivver for some time, and may investigate the matter, besides fixing up around his house.

"I'm going to take care of these boys," John added, indicating an admiring pop eyed circle of waiters, bus boys and dish washers who surrounded him in the hotel kitchen. "I'm going to be right generous."

John's mother owned the valued property in the heart of the Mexia oil district ever since slave days. Fourteen producing wells already have been sunk on the little farm.

"Gold! Gold!"

BACK in the '40's it took months for the thrilling news of California's gold strike to cross the continent. Today, a few hours after so important a discovery, the entire story would be known to newspaper readers throughout the country.

In the early days, news spread by word of mouth. Today, the telegraph and telephone speed the message into the newspaper office, it is rushed into type, the paper is printed and shortly the news becomes public property.

There are two kinds of news in the paper. One consists of the affairs of other people; their sayings, doings and what they're going to do; things that have happened, may happen and didn't happen.

The other kind of news is about your affairs. That's the part you'll find in the advertisements. There's a lot of valuable news there about things you want or will want; things that have to do with your own personal comfort, convenience and every-day efficiency.

Every advertisement carries a personal message to some one. Many advertisements carry messages of vital interest or value to you.

That's why you can't afford to miss the advertisements.

Read them. The advertisements are decidedly valuable to you.

SPEAK THE GOOD WORD:
Heaviness in the heart of man maketh it stoop; but a good word maketh it glad.—Proverbs 12: 25.

Idle Men and Idle Land

In this country there are millions of acres of excellent land that has never felt the bite of a plow. This land is capable of feeding many millions of people, although it is feeding none.

In every city in the country there are large numbers of people who would welcome a return to the farm if such could be effected. Generally they are men of families who have been brought up on the farm, but left in their younger days to "make their fortunes in the city," and are now marooned there as effectually as if stranded on a desert island.

It costs money to change from a crowded city to virgin land and convert the soil into a productive farm. And money they have not—at least not sufficient for the transformation.

If the government could devise some means of placing such families on unused land and aid them to the point where they could become self-

sustaining and pay off their indebtedness it would work a wonderful change in this country.

Of course it would in time reduce the price of farm products because of the great increase in production. This, however, would automatically reduce living expenses, and that would bring down the cost of labor, and production would become less expensive, and wholesale and retail prices would be lowered in proportion.

In other words, there would be a general reduction in the price of everything throughout the country.

We lose a tremendous amount of foreign trade for the simple reason that our cost of production is so great that we find it difficult to compete in world markets with other countries whose people are not living at so rapid and expensive a pace. This reduction in foreign trade, together with the rapid and constant influx of immigrants from abroad, produces stagnation in our labor markets and creates our armies of the unemployed.

There should be a general reduction of all prices of every nature, beginning with the man at the top, who can best afford it, and ending with the one at the bottom, who can least afford it.

It is useless to ask one element of our population to suffer a reduction in revenue while other elements continue to rake in their exorbitant profits. That is both unfair and foolhardy, because it leads to unrest and trouble.

There can never be any reduction in table costs as long as a great portion of the land remains untillied and those who are at present working the farms are compelled to pay excessive prices for everything they use.

A careful and honestly administered system of governmental aid to those who desire to return to the farms and become definite producers would go a long way toward solving the most difficult problem now facing the American people.

For Dempsey Bugs

(From the Iowa Legionaire)

The Dempsey white washers, particularly his tribe of yellow press agent apologists, of which Robert Edgren is high chief and medicine man, must have needed their smelling salts when they read what Hugh S. Fullerton, America's premier sports writer, wrote about the mauler shortly after he returned from Europe.

Said Fullerton: "Dempsey is back 'home'—at least back in the country in which he was born, and for which he didn't fight. He returns to America after about the sloppiest and most sickening lot of press agenting that ever has swamped respectable newspapers, and without having done a thing save perhaps to fix up a match with

The Proud Farmer

(In memory of E. S. Frazee, Rush County, Indiana)

Vachel Lindsay in

"General William Booth and Other Poems"

Into the acres of the newborn state
He poured his strength, and plowed his ancient name,
And, when the traders followed him, he stood
Towering above their furtive souls and tame.

That brow without a stain, that fearless eye
Of left the passing stranger wondering
To find such knighthood in the sprawling land,
To see a democrat, well-nigh a king.

He lived with liberal hand, with guests from far,
With talk and joke and fellowship to spare—
Watching the wide world's life from sun to sun,
Lining his walls from everywhere.
He read by night, he built his world by day.
The farm and house of God to him were one.
For forty years he preached and plowed and wrought—
A statesman in the fields, who bent to none.

His plowmen-neighbors were as lords to him.
His was an ironside, democratic pride.
He served a rigid Christ, but served him well—
And, for a lifetime, saved the countryside.

Here lie the dead, who gave the church their best
Under his fiery preaching of the word.
They sleep with him beneath the ragged grass.
The village withers, by his voice unstirred.

And though his tribe be scattered to the wind
From the Atlantic to the China sea,
Yet do they think of that bright lamp he burned
Of family worth and proud integrity.

And many a sturdy grandchild hears his name
In reverence spoken, till he feels akin
To all the lion-eyed who built the world—
And lion-dreams begin to burn within.

Carpenter—which, of course, would not be permitted in the United States.

"There has been so much bunk spilled about Dempsey and the plans for his future that it is really time to talk out loud. Dempsey has not been keeping anywhere in near condition to box. The life he has led during his European trip, instead of training a man, would make an ordinary man an invalid. His associates have been those who certainly do not tend to improve condition.

"Dempsey is a strong, rugged fellow—but if he continued the kind of life he has led and kept it up for two years, I could quit smoking cigars for a week and lick him myself."

Fullerton has a reputation for his honesty. His Americanism is always on straight. He has scintillated for cleanliness in all forms of athletics. A few more wallops from him, like the one above, will just about put Dempsey back among his own kind—the scum of the earth. May this be only the first round for Fullerton.

of Health. No attention will be given to telephone calls or to any anonymous letters. It is the desire of the health board to cooperate with the people of Rushville in keeping our city a clean and healthful one—and by cooperation we can accomplish many desirable measures without working a hardship upon any individual citizen.

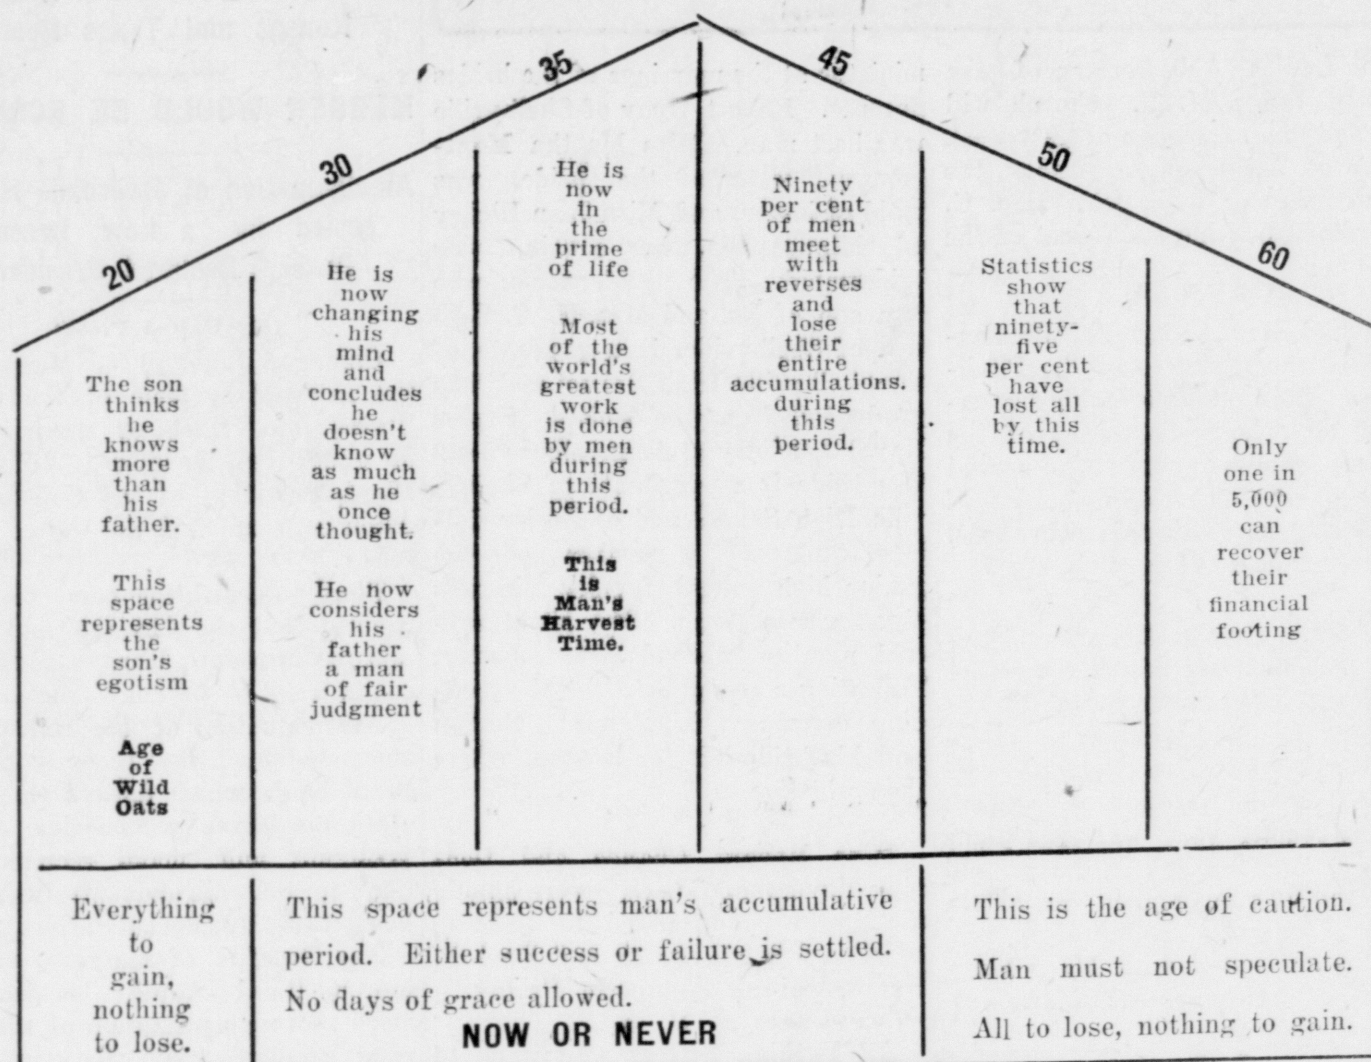

The above statements were agreed upon at the meeting, and a request made that they be published, so that the people could come to a better understanding with the city board of health.

Board Would be Set up to Control Price Fluctuations and Guarantee Square Deal

CONSIDERED IN CONGRESS

By PAUL R. MALLON

Washington, June 10.—A plan to place the coal industry under government supervision—in a manner similar to that by which the interstate commerce commission dominates the railroads—is now being considered in congress.

A government board would be set up to control price fluctuations and guarantee a square deal and fair profit to the operators, miners, retailers and wholesalers.

Though no definite arrangements have been made yet pending outcome of certain present negotiations, it is thought probable that the Kenyon suggestion for government control of mines may be resurrected and placed before the senate.

Some of those opposed to the Kenyon plan are in favor of congressional action to provide an appropriation for a "price regulation board," which would protect public interests and safeguard the coal industry from attacks which have been made against it for supposed irregular operations.

The Plum Creek Missionary Society will hold an all day meeting Tuesday at the church. All the members of the auxiliary, circle and Mission band are urged to be present as the election of officers for the coming year will take place at that time. The Y. P. C. U. of the First United Presbyterian church, held their regular monthly business meeting and social Friday evening at the church. The afternoon was enjoyed with games after which a short business meeting was held. Following the business meeting light refreshments were served to the guests present.

The Willing Workers class of the St. Paul's M. E. church met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George Smith, 954 West Third street. Although the attendance was small, a very helpful meeting was held and much good may come from the meeting. A scheme for increasing the attendance was devised and plans for a picnic were discussed and a movement was made to secure a large attendance Sunday at the Sunday school and church services in honor of the Centennial services. The topic for the lesson Sunday is "Jeremiah Cast Into Prison," the text being found in Jeremiah 37: 1-38; 13. Miss Sarah Williams, president, and Mrs. Frank Smith, secretary, desire a full attendance of the membership Sunday at the services.

The following account of the marriage of Horatio Clay Sexton, of Shelbyville, Ind., well known and related in this city to Miss Ruth C. Montgomery of New Albany appeared in the Indianapolis News Friday under a New Albany date line, where the wedding occurred:

Horatio Clay Sexton, of Shelbyville, lieutenant, junior grade, United States navy and Miss Ruth C. Montgomery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Montgomery, were married Thursday at the home of the bride's parents on Silver Hills, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. Z. T. Sweeney, of Columbus, Ind., who also was the officiating

ALWAYS TIRED NO AMBITION

Nervous and Dizzy, Everything Seemed to Worry Me.
How I Got Well

Larwill, Indiana.—"My back was so bad I could not do my washing. I was always tired out and had no ambition, was nervous and dizzy and everything seemed to worry me and I had awful pains in my right side. I felt badly about four years and could not do my work as it should have been done. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised so much and it did so many people good that I began to take it myself. I am feeling fine now and every one tells me they never saw me looking so well. I live on a farm, do all my work, and have three little girls to take care of. I am recommending this medicine to my friends and I know it will help them if they use it like I do." — Mrs. HERBERT LONG, R. R. 3, Box 7, Larwill, Indiana.

Many women keep about their work when it is a great effort. They are always tired out and have no ambition. When you are in this condition give it prompt attention.

minister at the marriage of the brides parents. Robert Wray of Shelbyville was best man. Miss Martha Montgomery, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Miss Jean Dickey of Minneapolis, her cousin, was bridesmaid. The bridegroom, who is a son of Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Sexton, of Shelbyville, is a graduate of the Shelbyville High School and was graduated from the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis in 1920. The bride is a graduate of Shelbyville High School and of Butler College and was a member of the junior high school faculty in this city for two years. She spent several months abroad last summer. Following a reception after the wedding ceremony, Lieutenant Sexton and his bride left for Boston, where they will live.

Miss Rasora Chance and Denning Havens of this city were among the guests who attended the wedding of Miss Grethyl Zaring and Fred P. Hackman in Indianapolis Friday.

All Pythian Sisters who wish to attend the Uniform Rank meeting at the Coliseum Sunday afternoon are requested to meet at the K. of P. hall Sunday afternoon at one o'clock and a way will be provided for them to attend.

Mrs. F. E. Moore entertained with a clever informal party Friday evening at her home in North Harrison street, honoring Miss Wilma Moore of Alexandria, who is her house guest for a few days. The home was prettily decorated for the occasion with Japanese lanterns and spring flowers. Each guest was requested to give a stunt and Miss Louise Innis acted as the leader. Games and music were enjoyed following the stunts. Dainty refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Mrs. Curtis Hester was leader of the program given at the regular meeting of the Delphian Society Friday afternoon in the Elks club rooms. She also gave a talk on "The Roman Family." Other talks included: "Houses and Apparels," Mrs. Chase Mauzy; "Food and Childhood," Mrs. Frank Schriebe; "Education and Sport," Mrs. Scott Hosier; "Business," Mrs. R. O. She received a divorce but we soon remarried. But now she's gone too far."

CONSIDER MERGING RAILROAD SYSTEMS

Bierd Announces Consolidation of Chicago and Alton and Missouri, Kansas and Texas Roads

MERGER WOULD BE ECONOMY

Amalgamation of Railroads is Suggested by a Law Recently Passed, Declared President

(By United Press)
Chicago, June 10 -- Merging of the railroad systems of the United States into three or four groups is under consideration, William G. Bierd, president of the Chicago and Alton railroad, told the United Press today.

Bierd's declaration came following reports that the Chicago and Alton and the Missouri, Kansas and Texas roads were to be consolidated. Amalgamation of the railroads, is suggested by a law recently passed, Bierd said, which directs the interstate commerce commission to investigate and make recommendations to the railroads who would be benefited by consolidation.

The benefits of mergers, according to Bierd would be economy, more thorough utilization of the railroad properties and the strengthening of some systems by linking them to stronger carriers.

The interstate commerce commission has instructed professor Riply of Harvard university to compile railroad statistics and make recommendations where mergers would be beneficial, Bierd said.

The initial report of Prof. Riply has been received by the commission, Bierd announced and recommends a merger of systems in the southwest.

With reference to the situation in the southwest and the rumored merger of the Chicago and Alton and the Missouri, Kansas and Texas Bierd said:

"It is a well known fact that the Chicago and Alton connects with the three central west points most vital to transportation -- Chicago, St. Louis and Kansas City.

"The rumored merger has been suggested as a means to connect the Katy system with Chicago, such a consolidation would provide Chicago with direct lines to the southwest including all points in Oklahoma and Texas and possibly would be highly beneficial to both systems.

"The law suggesting consolidation of carriers is not compulsory, however. It merely directs the interstate commerce commission to make investigations and recommend to the railroads where mergers would be beneficial", he concluded.

AMUSEMENTS

A Western At The Mystic

The Mystic Theatre is presenting today J. P. McGowan in what is claimed to be his greatest and most thrilling Western melodrama, "The Hills of Missing Men." Its story by John B. Clymer is laid in the border land of the Southwest, where a powerful and dangerous man lives in luxury in a walled castle hidden in the hills. He gathered a large army of men—desperadoes, criminals and adventurers—and plotted a revolution.

Some of the thrills in "The Hills of Missing Men" are the escape of McGowan from the Rangers. He jumps from a window and dashes away on a horse, hurdling all obstacles and leaping a wide, yawning chasm. A troop of cavalry does some wild and spectacular riding and fighting. McGowan rescues a girl in a smashing fight on the stairs. These are only some of the more spectacular thrills, for the story itself is replete throughout with tense situations.

The cast is excellent, the scenery beautiful panoramas of rolling hills, and the story grips with its mystery and romance, and thrills with its adventure. It is one of the photographs you will want to see.

At the Princess Saturday

Two acts of vaudeville stand out prominently on the program again today at the Princess theater, and those who attended last night were highly pleased with the entire bill. A two reel picture, or round three of "The Leather Pushers" also is an added attraction.

"The Cave Girl," a vivid, pulsating story of youth, romance and adventure, enhanced by magnificent outdoor scenery is the feature picture today.

The Yosemite Valley, one of the nation's greatest natural parks, is shown in all the glory of its winter garb, giving film audiences the first opportunity of seeing this outdoor playground as it has never before been screened.

Such a wonderful setting has been given the spontaneous comedy by Guy Bolton and George Middleton, which, in its stage version, scored a successful run on Broadway. All the elements of appeal that made the play a popular success have been retained in its transformation upon the screen and the result is said to be a picture of tense interest and stupendous thrills and scenic effects.

"Our Little Wife," Murat

On next Monday night and continuing throughout the week the Stuart Walker Company will appear in a highly diverting confection entitled "Our Little Wife." This play is a farce, acted in New York with success by Margaret Livingston, and is a product of no less fertile a brain than that of Avery Hopwood, author of "The Bat" and "The Gold Diggers." The play will serve admirably as a vehicle for the various personalities in Mr. Walker's sterling organization.

"Our Little Wife" is a flirtatious lady named Dodo. She is exotic and polyandrous. She likes to be surrounded by shoals of adoring loungelizards. And though she is ringmaster of a troupe of tame cats, Dodo also has a husband. This hubby loves her, but he is curious to see just what she is up to. So, when he spies his friend, Bobo, on wife to see how far she will go, she goes all the way to Bobo's bachelor apartment, where she proves beyond question that if she is ten degrees above, he is ten degrees below normal. Eventually, however, divorce is avoided. It's all mere philandering, and Dodo—far from being extinct bird—promises to eschew her tame cats forever.

George Gaul's second role with the Stuart Walker Company this season will be that of the husband in this merry marital maelstrom. Others in the cast include Aldrich Bowler, Spring Byington, France Bowdster, Donald McDonald, George Sonnes,

PUGH FAMILY IS OF WELSH EXTRACTION

Rue Pugh Came to Rush County in 1823 and Held Various Public Trusts During His Life

SERVED AS CO. TREASURER

The family of Pugh is of Welsh extraction, having come from Wales and settled in Newberry District, North Carolina, where Rue Pugh was born April 6, 1794. From there he moved to Ohio, coming to Rush county in 1823, where he married Catherine Arnold, a native of the Isle of Wight, England, April 27, 1827.

Rue Pugh died August 5, 1837, leaving his widow and five children, Sophia, Ruena, Winifred, William A. and David W. Various public trusts were at different periods, confided to his management, and at the time of his decease, he held the office of county treasurer.

The following is a brief entry on the records of those early days: "The court met again at the home of Rue Pugh in Rushville, November 2, 1823, and was opened by Poston and Parker, but during the day Judge Eggleston arrived and held the court."

When the Pugh family removed from North Carolina to Ohio, there were four sons, William, Rue, Job and Lot. Rue and Job removed to Indiana in 1823, where Rue became a prominent merchant of Rushville. Lot remained in Ohio and was the father of George Ellis Pugh, attorney general of Ohio, 1851-1855, and elected U. S. senator from March 4, 1855 to 1861.

Walter Poulter and Robert McGroarty.

The entire production has been made under the personal supervision of Mr. Walker, with special settings by Almerin Gowing. There will be the usual matinees on Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday.

TO PREACH HERE SUNDAY

The Rev. Wilbur Wiley of Rineback, Iowa, formerly of Milroy, will preach at the morning service at the First United Presbyterian church Sunday morning at 10:45. A large attendance is desired at this meeting.

NEW AUTO PARKING RULES ANNOUNCED

Fifteen-Minute Parking Zones Established to Permit People
to do Trading

STATEMENT BY THE MAYOR

Urges Automobile Owners to Assist
in Enforcing New Regulations
—Some Changes

On account of the increased automobile parking congestion, the streets of Rushville have been marked off with white painted lines to direct automobile drivers in parking their machines in the business district, and in certain sections of the district, fifteen minute parking zones are established.

Mayor Walter Thomas who was asked by the council to assume charge of the parking arrangements, has directed the matter of marking off the lines, and issued a statement today, calling attention to the fact that automobile drivers should assist in abiding by the regulations, which he outlined in his statement.

Attention should also be called to the fact that there is no parking allowed on the south side of Third street, between Main and Morgan, which is due to the location of the fire department. The large motor truck cannot make get away without delay if traffic is congested in this zone.

The statement made today by Mayor Thomas, is as follows:

For the public interest and commonwealth at large is the great need of in some way caring for the increasing congestion of the autos on and about the streets of our most beautiful city, and I deem it only right and proper that we lay aside our own selfish desires just to be a K-I-R-O.

First, we need the use of part of the street as a "No Parking," over 15 minutes, so that the rural customer can get in reach of the sidewalk, thereby permitting them to transfer their goods to and from our business houses.

The congestion on Main and Second Streets at certain times might prove dangerous, both to life and property, should there be a fire call and the fire apparatus have a run upon said streets, when at times,
you know, on Saturdays there are four machines abreast at different points, which condition is not permissible.

Now, let us all get together and help the town along, for you will most assuredly benefit the community as a whole by observing the traffic laws.

Parking around the Court House
will be on a forty-five degree,

RELIEF FROM HEAT WAVE IS PROMISED

Weather Bureau Forecasts Lower
Temperatures In Nearly Every
Section Of Country

EIGHT LIVES CHICAGO TOLL

Washington, June 10 —Relief from the heat wave of the last few days was forecast today by the weather bureau. Somewhat cooler weather now prevails in New England and along the northern portion of the country to the Pacific coast with a drop in temperature due this afternoon, tonight and Sunday in nearly all the rest of the country, forecast said.

Chicago, June 10 —Cloudy weather and a good breeze today gave Chicago relief from the torrid temperature which caused intense suffering the last two days, and took a toll of eight lives. Many were overcome by heat. Park benches were crowded last night with sleepers who were unable to obtain rest in stuffy rooms.

Low water pressure increased the fire hazard, a great drain being made on the city's water supply by many sprinkling lawns and gardens.

FINGER PRINTS SOLE CLUE TO THE MURDER

Blood Hounds Lose Trail of Fiend
Who Killed Miss Alice Mallett
at Jackson, Mich.

SUSPECTS ARE RELEASED

Jackson, Mich., June 10—Finger prints on the blood-marked handle of an ax used to murder Miss Alice Mallett, girls' home matron here, Thursday, were looked upon today as the sole means of establishing a clue
to the identification of the fiend.
Blood hounds lost the trail they had followed into a bog north of the city. The suspect followed in the swamp disappeared about the same spot that the warden of the state prison here and the young woman were shot to death three years ago by an escaped convict.

Hundreds of men were beating through the swamp today. Several suspects taken in the city were grilled and their finger prints taken by Captain Harmon. Robert Brockie, besides whose home the badly mutilated body of Mrs. Mallett was found, was released late last night,
police being satisfied he would appear as a material witness.

NATION CONFRONTED BY SERIOUS CRISIS

Labor Leaders Gathered for A. F. L.
Convention Convinced it Must
be Met Courageously

RALLY CALL TO THE WORKERS

(By United Press)

Cincinnati, Ohio, June 10.—The nation is confronting one of the most critical industrial crisis in its history, responsible leaders of organized labor warned here today as they gathered for the convention of the American Federation of Labor.

They sounded a rally cry to the country's workers, a challenge and a warning to labor foes and appealed to the whole American people, as they announced their intentions of grappling in a constructive way in their convention with the economic problems facing them.

The elements in the critical industrial situation, in the opinion of labor leaders, are having a profound and harmful effect on the country's future if it is not met squarely, courageously and intelligently now in the coal strike, the impending railroad strike, the disposition of some employers to force wage cuts on labor, refusal to lower price, the lack of sympathy and intelligence in congress and official circles.

Labor leaders here have definite ideas of the part they must play in their convention and afterwards in meeting the crisis in their own affairs.

During a week of preliminary conventions and group meetings here
the principal leaders have continuously stressed labor groups meet in unity to meet the coming foe.

HEALTH BOARD IS REORGANIZED

Dr. J. M. Lee is Elected Secretary
Following The Resignation of
Dr. R. O. Kennedy

D. D. VANOSDOL NEW MEMBER

Board Issues Statement Calling At-
tention to Violations of
Health Ordinances

On account of the resignation of Dr. R. O. Kennedy, as secretary of the board of health and also city health officer, the new board held a meeting Friday afternoon and reorganized, picking Dr. John M. Lee as the successor for Dr. Kennedy, and with Dr. H. V. Logan as president of the board and Dr. D. D.
VanOsdol as treasurer.

Dr. Lee formerly was treasurer of the board, and when Dr. Kenedy resigned, the board was compelled to reorganize and elect a new secretary and health officer from their own membership.
Several matters pertaining to the city health were discussed at the first meeting of the new board Friday afternoon, and attention of the public was called to the following:

(1) It must be understood that there is no official vault cleaner designated by the board. All that the officers are interested in, is that the vaults ordered cleaned, are cleaned. The public will select whom they please for the work, and after the contents of the vault are removed, a thorough sprinkling of lime must be used.

(2) Attention is again called to the ordinance relative to garbage collections. This ordinance requires a suitable, air-tight, fly-proof, tight-fitting lid, on a metal contain-

RALLY TO SUPPORT OF BILL

Southern and Western Senators to Aid Bonus Measure

Washington, June 10.—Southern and western senators today rallied to the support of the McCumber soldier bonus bill with a demand that it be brought up for early consideration in the senate.

Practically unanimous support from Senators from 17 western and intermountain states was pledged to the bill following inclusion as an amendment to the McNary $350-000,000 reclamation project, which also is added as another compensation feature for veterans.

EVIDENCE TO BE FINISHED TONIGHT

Breach Of Contract Suit Of T. J.
Marshall Against Capp And
D. M. Miller Still In Progress

DEMAND OF $2,000 IS MADE

The case of Thomas J. Marshall against Capp Miller and D. M. Miller started in the circuit court Friday morning, was still in progress today,
and it was expected that the evidence would be completed by tonight.

The suit is a demand for $2,000 judgment as the result of an alleged breach of contract, growing out of a deal in growing timber, near Metamora. The action is being bitterly fought and many witnesses have been summoned to testify for the parties.
The plaintiff is represented in the case by attorneys, John A. Tittsworth and Douglass Morris, and the defense
by C. W. Duncan and Donald L.
Smith.

In case that the evidence is completed today, and there is no time for the arguments, they will be heard early Monday, in all probability.
Another jury case is scheduled for Monday, and an effort was being made today to complete the suit on trial by night.

INFIRMARY INMATE ARRESTED

better as McKinley Richey, and an inmate at the county infirmary, was placed in jail Friday, after he attacked Lee Gilson, another inmate at the infirmary. Chief of Police Will O'Neil was called, and placed him in jail. It is understood that an insanity hearing will be held on the prisoner and an attempt will be made to have him committed to the State Hospital at Madison.

The program and the line of march for the annual memorial services and review of the Third Regiment, Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias, was announced today, and a record crowd is expected to attend the services
here Sunday afternoon.

Several changes have been made in the program as originally announced, with the principal change being the inspection and review of the regiment will conclude the program, instead of the speaking.

All of the visiting ranks, which constitute the third-regiment, will assemble at the Knights of Pythias hall, corner of Morgan and Second street, promptly at two o'clock.

A school for officers will be held at the hall at 1:30, when the various commanders will be informed concerning the line of march.

The Rushville band will lead the parade, followed by General Gray and his staff. The various divisions of the uniform rank will follow next.
In this division there will be several hundred visitors from the various towns and cities in this vicinity.

As the services were also decided to be a joint memorial for the Knights of Pythias and the Pythian Sisters, these two orders will also

OTHER ARRANGEMENTS MADE

Pageant and Exhibit of Relics Expected to Rank With Parade
as Centennial Features

Souvenir Histories

A souvenir history for the Rush county centennial celebration, made up of historical articles published in the Daily Republican during the past two months, will be issued on Tuesday of next week to persons who have contributed to the fund to finance the Centennial.

The histories are a twenty-page book put up in attractive shape by the publicity committee of the Centennial. They will be prorated among the Centennial contributors in proportion to the amount they gave and will be given away
as Centennial souvenirs.

Four thousand copies have been printed and it is expected that there will be enough to go around. The histories will be distributed Tuesday.

Final plans and arrangements were made Friday evening for the parade which will be held on Thursday afternoon of the Rush county
Centennial celebration next week.

Other plans for the Centennial are taking final shape and the executive committee is checking up to see that every committee has done its part in completing the arrangements.

All indications point to it being the biggest event in the history of Rush county. Word from many former residents of Rush county reveal that the publicity given the Home Coming Day on Thursday has had its effect and that hundreds of people who formerly called Rush county home will be here for the observation of the one hundredth birthday of the county.

The parade and pageant on Thursday afternoon and evening respectively are expected to be the outstanding events of the celebration, but the program for Wednesday likewise offers many attractive features which will attract many people.

PROMPT ACTION NEAR IN GASOLINE PROBE

Senate Sub-Committee Tentatively
Selects Large List of Witness-
es For Inquiry

EXPERTS ARE SUMMONED

(By United Press)

Washington, June 10—Prompt action by the senate sub-committee on manufactures, investigating increasing gasoline prices was promised by Senator LaFollette, Wisconsin, chairman, today.

That the sub-committee of five will conduct exhaustive inquiry probably continuing several weeks, was evident when it became known that a large list of witnesses embracing every phase of the gasoline and the oil industry, had tentatively been selected to appear. Though it was impossible to obtain verification as the committee met it was believed officials of leading gasoline concerns of America were first on the list.

Government experts from the bureau of mines, the geological survey and the federal trade commission,
also, it was said, are to be called.
These bureaus already have conducted a preliminary survey into the price soaring and are ready to turn over to LaFollette's committee details of consumption and production of gasoline during the past few years.

IDENTITY OF CHARRED BODY STILL A MYSTERY

Efforts of Authorities to Trace Man Through Sales Slips at Porter, Ind., Fail

VICTIM OF ROBBER BAND

(By United Press)

Porter, Ind., June 10.—Identity of a charred body of a murdered man found at Waverly Beach in the Indiana dune region remained a mystery today.

Efforts of authorities to trace the men through sale slips and other means failed.

Alice Gray Wilson—"Diana of the Dunes"—Chicago University graduate who inhabits the region, and her husband, said they had never seen the man before.

It was believed that the victim was in the Dunes on a day's camping trip and the man having come into the hiding place of a band of robbers or moonshiners who killed him.

His body was then apparently placed on a pile of brush and kerosene was poured over the funeral pyre.

which will more than care for the "No Parking" space lost to parking.

It would be well for drivers of autos to know that in the city of Rushville there is no street that has preference over another in regard to traffic, or, which permits fast driving. Drivers should at all times bear in mind that parties coming from the right has the right of way. In coming onto streets from out of alleys, drivers must know that the traffic is clear for them. Cutting corners at intersection streets, or turning in front of autos at the approach of turning posts, are also very dangerous. Bicycle riders must not use the sidewalks—same are for pedestrians.

Above all speed is dangerous. Caution and safety first should be each one's motto.

TO CENTRALIZE DIVISIONS

To Transfer Communication Air Service School to Chanute Field

Washington, June 9.—As a result of an investigation of a special board of officers into the aviation school of the army, the war department has decided to centralize the information divisions of the air service at Chanute flying field, Rantoul, Illinois.

Orders have been issued by Secretary Weeks transferring the communication school of the air service at Post Flying field, Fort Sill, Oklahoma, to Chanute field, and arrangements likewise are being made to move the photography school, now situated at Langley Field, W. Va., to the Illinois station. It is thought that better results in aviation training will be obtained by this change.

building in West First street will be arranged the first of next week and will be in readiness for the opening of the Centennial Wednesday morning. The display will be arranged by townships, with each township having a booth for its exhibit.

Attention was again called today by Mrs. Guy Abercrombie, chairman of the relics committee, to the request made to merchants that they decorate their windows with relics of their particular line of business. On account of the relics being shown in one building, it is expected that business houses can arrange an attractive display reflecting the improvements in their business. In 1916, when the state Centennial was observed, county relics were exhibited in store windows.

The following plans were made for the formation of the parade Thursday:

The first part will form in North Main street below Eleventh with the Rushville police, mounted, at the head of the procession, followed by the Rushville band, the Rushville fire department and the Rushville postoffice officials.

The township sections of the historical division of the parade, which come first, will form as follows: Rushville township in West Eleventh. Noble in East Eleventh. Ripley in West Tenth.

Anderson in East Tenth. Orange, Union and Jackson in West Ninth.

Center, Washington and Richland in East Ninth.

Walker and Posey in East Eighth. Headed by the Arlington band the fraternal sections will form in East Seventh street and will fall in behind the historical section. Company C, Indiana National Guard, of this city, will be stationed in West Seventh street, and will bring up the rear of the fraternal section.

The industrial division, headed by the Knightstown Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home band, will form in West Eighth street and will fall in behind Company C. The retail section of the industrial division will form in North Perkins street below Sixth and will march over to Main and fall in behind the industrial floats.

G. P. Hunt will act as grand marshal of the parade and will have as his assistants, W. A. Alexander in charge of the historical or township division, Frank McIlwaine in charge of the fraternal division and Harold Pearce in charge of the industrial division, with Hugh Maury as his assistant taking charge of the retail division.

All of the townships have plans for representation in the historical division of the parade. None perhaps, has made more elaborate plans, than Ripley township which will be represented by several floats. It is described as follows in the Carthage Citizen:

"A genuine old fashioned schooner which typified early travel from the Carolinas to this country, will lead the local division. A modern way of travel will follow. It is also planned to have some floats, one representing the American Paper Products Co.'s plant which is the largest industry of any kind in the county; the DeSchipper Canning Co.'s factory and others."

CHILDREN'S DAY SUNDAY.

Children's Day exercises will be held at the Orange Christian church Sunday evening. An interesting program has been prepared consisting of songs, recitations and drills in charge of Mrs. Thomas Matney, Mrs. Claude Sipe, and Mrs. W. W. Law. Miss Freda Norris will be the piano accompanist.

Insurgent Group Formed to Search For New Evidence

Washington, June 10.—A movement to re-open the Newberry case now is under way in the senate.

An insurgent group has been formed in a search for new evidence to connect more closely Truman H. Newberry with the large campaign expenditures in the Michigan senatorial primaries of 1918.

Some new evidence in the case— not presented in the Michigan court fight or in the senate investigation— already has been discovered, according to a senator back of the move.

ORCHESTRA TO UNITE

The St. Paul's M. E. church orchestra, under the leadership of A. P. Wagoner, will join with the First Presbyterian church orchestra, Sunday evening and will render a special musical program at the First Presbyterian church. Miss McConnell, who was director of the music department in the Rushville public schools, will be the conductor of the orchestra Sunday evening. The public is invited to this service.

Aged Negro Chef To Get $500,000

(By United Press)

Greenville, Tex., June 10.—A second hand Ford truck, and the mend-he has had his ee on a used flivver mite warped."

These are the earthly ambitions of John Lindley, aged negro chef in the New Beekham hotel here, whose lawyers say he is about to get half a million dollars for a forty-acre piece of oil land.

John declares he is "going right on cooking for Mr. Beekham" despite his unexpected affluence. But he has had his eye on aused flivver for some time, and may investigate the matter, besides fixing up around his house.

"I'm going to take care of these boys," John added, indicating an admiring pop eyed circle of waiters, bus boys and dish washers who surrounded him in the hotel kitchen. "I'm going to be right generous."

John's mother owned the valued property in the heart of the Mexia oil district ever since slave days. Fourteen producing wells already have been sunk on the little farm.

"Gold! Gold!"

BACK in the '40's it took months for the thrilling news of California's gold strike to cross the continent. Today, a few hours after so important a discovery, the entire story would be known to newspaper readers throughout the country.

In the early days, news spread by word of mouth. Today, the telegraph and telephone speed the message into the newspaper office, it is rushed into type, the paper is printed and shortly the news becomes public property.

There are two kinds of news in the paper. One consists of the affairs of other people; their sayings, doings and what they're going to do; things that have happened, may happen and didn't happen.

The other kind of news is about your affairs. That's the part you'll find in the advertisements. There's a lot of valuable news there about things you want or will want; things that have to do with your own personal comfort, convenience and every-day efficiency.

Every advertisement carries a personal message to some one. Many advertisements carry messages of vital interest or value to you.

That's why you can't afford to miss the advertisements.

Read them. The advertisements are decidedly valuable to you.

SPEAK THE GOOD WORD:—
Heaviness in the heart of man maketh it stoop; but a good word maketh it glad.—Proverbs 12: 25.

Idle Men and Idle Land

In this country there are millions of acres of excellent land that has never felt the bite of a plow. This land is capable of feeding many millions of people, although it is feeding none.

In every city in the country there are large numbers of people who would welcome a return to the farm if such could be effected. Generally they are men of families who have been brought up on the farm, but left in their younger days to "make their fortunes in the city," and are now marooned there as effectively as if stranded on a desert island.

It costs money to change from a crowded city to virgin land and convert the soil into a productive farm. And money they have not—at least not sufficient for the transformation.

If the government could devise some means of placing such families on unused land and aid them to the point where they could become self-

sustaining and pay off their indebtedness it would work a wonderful change in this country.

Of course it would in time reduce the price of farm products because of the great increase in production. This, however, would automatically reduce living expenses, and that would bring down the cost of labor, and production would become less expensive, and wholesale and retail prices would be lowered in proportion.

In other words, there would be a general reduction in the price of everything throughout the country.

We lose a tremendous amount of foreign trade for the simple reason that our cost of production is so great that we find it difficult to compete in world markets with other countries whose people are not living at so rapid and expensive a pace. This reduction in foreign trade, together with the rapid and constant influx of immigrants from abroad, produces stagnation in our labor markets and creates our armies of the unemployed.

There should be a general reduction of all prices of every nature, beginning with the man at the top, who can best afford it, and ending with the one at the bottom, who can least afford it.

It is useless to ask one element of our population to suffer a reduction in revenue while other elements continue to rake in their exorbitant profits. That is both unfair and foolhardy, because it leads to unrest and trouble.

There can never be any reduction in table costs as long as a great portion of the land remains untilled and those who are at present working the farms are compelled to pay excessive prices for everything they use.

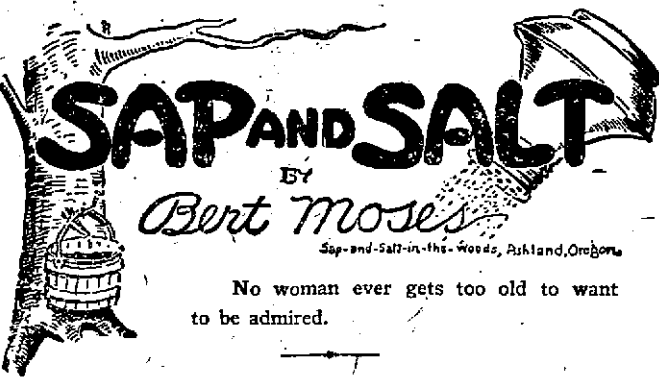

A careful and honestly administered system of governmental aid to those who desire to return to the farms and become definite producers would go a long way toward solving the most difficult problem now facing the American people.

For Dempsey Bugs

(From the Iowa Legionaire)

The Dempsey white washers, particularly his tribe of yellow press agent apologists, of which Robert Edgren is high chief and medicine man, must have needed their smelling salts when they read what Hugh S. Fullerton, America's premier sports writer, wrote about the man-ner shortly after he returned from Europe.

Said Fullerton:

"Dempsey is back 'home'—at least back in the country in which he was born, and for which he didn't fight. He returns to America after about the sloppiest and most sickening lot of press agenting that ever has swamped respectable newspapers, and without having done a thing save perhaps to fix up a match with

(In memory of E. S. Frazee, Rush County, Indiana)

Vachel Lindsay in

"General William Booth and Other Poems"

Into the acres of the newborn state
He poured his strength, and plowed his ancient name,
And, when the traders followed him, he stood
Towering above their furtive souls and tame.

That brow without a stain, that fearless eye
Oft left the passing stranger wondering
To find such knighthood in the sprawling land,
To see a democrat, well-nigh a king.

He lived with liberal hand, with guests from far,
With talk and joke and fellowship to spare—
Watching the wide world's life from sun to sun,
Lining his walls from everywhere.
He read by night, he built his world by day.
The farm and house of God to him were one.
For forty years he preached and plowed and wrought—
A statesman in the fields; who bent to none.

His plowmen-neighbors were as lords to him.
His was an ironside, democratic pride.
He served a rigid Christ, but served him well—
And, for a lifetime, saved the countryside.

Here lie the dead, who gave the church their best
Under his fiery preaching of the word.
They sleep with him beneath the ragged grass.
The village withers, by his voice unstirred.

And though his tribe be scattered to the wind
From the Atlantic to the China sea,
Yet do they think of that bright lamp he burned
Of family worth and proud integrity.

And many a sturdy grandchild hears his name
In reverence spoken, till he feels akin
To all the lion-eyed who built the world—
And lion-dreams begin to burn within.

Carpenter—which, of course, would not be permitted in the United States.

"There has been so much bunk spilled about Dempsey and the plans for his future that it is really time to talk out loud. Dempsey has not been keeping anywhere in near condition to box. The life he has led during his European trip, instead of training a man, would make an ordinary man an invalid. His associates have been those who certainly do not tend to improve condition.

"Dempsey is a strong, rugged fellow—but if he continued the kind of life he has led and kept it up for two years, I could quit smoking cigars for a week and lick him myself."

Fullerton has a reputation for his honesty. His Americanism is always on straight. He has stimulated for cleanliness in all forms of athletics. A few more wallops from him, like the one above, will just about put Dempsey back among his own kind—the scum of the earth. May this be only the first round for Fullerton.

Automobiles will be furnished for the older members of the rank, the subordinate lodge and the Pythian Sisters, who are unable to march, and this delegation will conclude the parade.

After reaching Main and Second streets, the parade will move north on Main to Tenth, and west on Tenth to Jackson street, and south on Jackson street to the entrance of the park.

Tenth street was chosen in order to avoid marching on Ninth street, which was recently oiled.

Upon arrival at the park, the marchers, and the public are invited to gather at the coliseum, where a program will be rendered. Samuel L. Trabue will preside and George C. Wyatt will offer the invocation. Rollin Turner of Greensburg will deliver a short memorial address.

The review of the regiment will be held after the speaking, outside of the coliseum, and on the west side of the park. This service also is open for the public.

MAY PLACE COAL UNDER GOV'T SUPERVISION

Board Would be Set up to Control Price Fluctuations and Guarantee Square Deal

CONSIDERED IN CONGRESS

By PAUL R. MALLON

Washington, June 10.—A plan to place the coal industry under government supervision—in a manner similar to that by which the interstate commerce commission dominates the railroads—is now being considered in congress.

A government board would be set up to control price fluctuations and guarantee a square deal and fair profit to the operators, miners, retailers and wholesalers.

Though no definite arrangements have been made yet pending outcome of certain present negotiations, it is thought probable that the Kenyon suggestion for government control of mines may be resurrected and placed before the senate.

Some of those opposed to the Kenyon plan are in favor of congressional action to provide an appropriation for a "price regulation board," which would protect public interests and safeguard the coal industry from attacks which have been made against it for supposed irregular operations.

The topic for the lesson Sunday is "Jeremiah Cast Into Prison," the text being found in Jeremiah 37: 1-38; 13. ALWAYS TIRED
NO AMBITION

Nervous and Dizzy, Everything Seemed to Worry Me. How I Got Well

Larwill, Indiana.—"My back was so bad I could not do my washing. I was always tired out and had no ambition, was nervous and dizzy and everything seemed to worry me and I had awful pains in my right side. I felt badly about four years and could not do my work as I should have been done. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised so much and it did so many people good that I began to take it myself. I am feeling fine now and everyone tells me they never saw me looking so well. I live on a farm, do all my work, and have three little girls to take care of. I am recommending this medicine to my friends and know it will help them if they use it like I do." —Mrs. HERBERT LONG, R. R. 3, Box 7, Larwill, Indiana.

Many women keep about their work when it is a great effort. They are always tired out and have no ambition. When you are in this condition give it prompt attention.

Take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, for it is especially adapted to correct such troubles, as it did for Mrs. Long.

The bride is a graduate of Shelbyville High School and of Butler College and was a member of the junior high school faculty in this city for two years. She spent several months abroad last summer. Following a reception after the wedding ceremony, Lieutenant Sexton and his bride left for Boston, where they will live.

THIRD TIME'S CHARM

Chicago, June 9.—"I'll never marry that woman again," said D. M. Burham, wealthy cigar manufacturer today when informed his wife had sued him for a divorce the third time.

"I didn't mind it so much when she sued me the first time," he said. "We patched that up all right and she withdrew her action."

"The second time wasn't so bad either. She received a divorce but we soon remarried. But now she's gone too far."

CONSIDER MERGING
RAILROAD SYSTEMS

Bierd Announces Consolidation of Chicago and Alton and Missouri, Kansas and Texas Roads

MERGER WOULD BE ECONOMY

Amalgamation of Railroads is Suggested by a Law Recently Passed, Declared President

(By United Press)

Chicago, June 10 -- Merging of the railroad systems of the United States into three or four groups is under consideration, William G. Bierd, president of the Chicago and Alton railroad, told the United Press today.

Bierd's declaration came following reports that the Chicago and Alton and the Missouri, Kansas and Texas roads were to be consolidated.

Amalgamation of the railroads, is suggested by a law recently passed, Bierd said, which directs the interstate commerce commission to investigate and make recommendations to the railroads who would be benefitted by consolidation.

The benefits of mergers, according to Bierd would be economy, more thorough utilization of the railroad properties and the strengthening of some systems by linking them to stronger carriers.

The interstate commerce commission has instructed professor Riply of Harvard university to compile railroad statistics and make recommendations where mergers would be beneficial, Bierd said.

The initial report of Prof. Riply has been received by the commission, Bierd announced and recommends a merger of systems in the southwest.

With reference to the situation in the southwest and the rumored merger of the Chicago and Alton and the Missouri, Kansas and Texas Bierd said:

"It is a well known fact that the Chicago and Alton connects with the three central west points most vital to transportation -- Chicago, St. Louis and Kansas City.

"The rumored merger has been suggested as a means to connect the Katy system with Chicago, such a consolidation would provide Chicago with direct lines to the southwest including all points in Oklahoma and Texas and possibly would be highly beneficial to both systems.

"The law suggesting consolidation of carriers is not compulsory, however. It merely directs the interstate commerce commission to make investigations and recommend to the railroads where mergers would be beneficial," he concluded.

AMUSEMENTS

A Western At The Mystic

The Mystic Theatre is presenting today J. P. McGowan in what is claimed to be his greatest and most thrilling Western melodrama, "The Hills of Missing Men." Its story by John B. Clymer is laid in the border land of the Southwest, where a powerful and dangerous man lives in luxury in a walled castle hidden in the hills. He gathered a large army of men—desperadoes, criminals and adventurers—and plotted a revolution.

Some of the thrills in "The Hills of Missing Men" are the escape of McGowan from the Rangers. He jumps from a window and dashes away on a horse, hurdling all obstacles and leaping a wide, yawning chasm. A troop of cavalry does some wild and spectacular riding and fighting. McGowan rescues a girl in a smashing fight on the stairs. These are only some of the more spectacular thrills, for the story itself is replete throughout with tense situations.

The cast is excellent, the scenery beautiful panoramas of rolling hills, and the story grips with its mystery and romance, and thrills with its adventure. It is one of the photoplays you will want to see.

At the Princess Saturday

Two acts of vaudeville stand out prominently on the program again today at the Princess theater, and those who attended last night were highly pleased with the entire bill. A two reel picture, or round three of "The Leather Pushers" also is an added attraction.

"The Cave Girl," a vivid, pulsating story of youth, romance and adventure, enhanced by magnificent outdoor scenery is the feature picture today.

The Yosemite Valley, one of the nation's greatest natural parks, is shown in all the glory of its winter garb, giving film audiences the first opportunity of seeing this outdoor playground as it has never before been screened.

Such a wonderful setting has been given the spontaneous comedy by Guy Bolton and George Middleton, which, in its stage version, scored a successful run on Broadway. All the elements of appeal that made the play a popular success have been retained in its transformation upon the screen and the result is said to be a picture of tense interest and stupendous thrills and scenic effects.

"Our Little Wife," Murat

On next Monday night and continuing throughout the week the Stuart Walker Company will appear in a highly diverting confection entitled "Our Little Wife." This play is a farce, acted in New York with success by Margaret Hington, and is a product of no less fertile a brain than that of Avery Hopwood, author of "The Bat" and "The Gold Diggers." The play will serve admirably as a vehicle for the various personalities in Mr. Walker's sterling organization.

"Our Little Wife" is a flirtatious lady named Dodo. She is exotic and polyandrous. She likes to be surrounded by shoals of adoring lounge-lizards. And though she is ring-master of a troupe of tame cats, Dodo also has a husband. This hubby loves her, but he is curious to see just what she is up to. So, when he sees his friend, Bobo, on wife to see how far she will go, she goes all the way to Bobo's bachelor apartment, where she proves beyond question that if she is ten degrees above, he is ten degrees below normal. Eventually, however, divorce is avoided. It's all mere philandering, and Dodo—far from being extinct bird—promises to eschew her tame cats forever.

George Gaul's second role with the Stuart Walker Company this season will be that of the husband in this merry marital maelstrom. Others in the cast include Aldrich Bowker, Spring Byington, France Bendsten, Donald McDonald, George Sommes,

PUGH FAMILY IS OF WELSH EXTRACTION

Rue Pugh Came to Rush County in 1823 and Held Various Public Trusts During His Life

SERVED AS CO. TREASURER

The family of Pugh is of Welsh extraction, having come from Wales and settled in Newberry District, North Carolina, where Rue Pugh was born April 6, 1794. From there he moved to Ohio, coming to Rush county in 1823, where he married Catherine Arnold, a native of the Isle of Wight, England, April 27, 1827.

Rue Pugh died August 5, 1837, leaving his widow and five children, Sophia, Ruena, Winifred, William A. and David W. Various public trusts were at different periods, confided to his management, and at the time of his decease, he held the office of county treasurer.

The following is a brief entry on the records of those early days: "The court met again at the home of Rue Pugh in Rushville, November 2, 1823, and was opened by Poston and Parker, but during the day Judge Eggleston arrived and held the court."

When the Pugh family removed from North Carolina to Ohio, there were four sons, William, Rue, Job and Lot. Rue and Job removed to Indiana in 1823, where Rue became a prominent merchant of Rushville. Lot remained in Ohio and was the father of George Ellis Pugh, attorney general of Ohio, 1851-1855, and elected U. S. senator from March 4, 1855 to 1861.

Walter Poulter and Robert McGroarty.

The entire production has been made under the personal supervision of Mr. Walker, with special settings by Almerin Gowing. There will be the usual matinees on Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday.

TO PREACH HERE SUNDAY

The Rev. Wilbur Wiley of Rineback, Iowa, formerly of Milroy, will preach at the morning service at the First United Presbyterian church Sunday morning at 10:45. A large attendance is desired at this meeting.
